Foreword

AS WE come to the close of another year, the thirteenth, in the history of Mississippi Woman's College, we attempt to chronicle, in picture and story, the events of the past year. We, of the Class of 1925, have endeavored to make this book a true echo of our fourth and last year in our beloved Alma Mater. To our older sisters, who have gone before us, may it recall fond memories of their school days. To our younger sisters yet to come, may it provide inspiration and ideals. To the casual reader, it is but a book to be read in leisure moments. To us, it is a living record of familiar scenes and faces, a few choice reflections from our pages of life.

And there,
All wild to found an University
For maidens, on the spur she fled; and
More we know not-only this: they see no men.

—Tennyson: The Princess.

Book Two
 The Classes

To Our Sponsor Mother, Mrs. S. A. Wilkinson

Our eyes become wistful and tender and our hearts full of gratitude and love and pride when we think of all that the Sponsor Mother of Class '25 has meant to us and inspired in us.

To her, as to our own dear mothers, we can never hope to repay a portion of our debt.

Sponsor Mother of '25, our lives have been much influenced by your wonderful womanliness; our college life made dear by your presence. In payment we are endorsing over to you our life checks. And if we are of any service to the world, if we are the cause of any happiness or joy to others, the praise thrust in our direction will be your cash dividend. It is truly yours.

MARY RILEY

B.A. History Major
COLUMBIA, MISS.

Secretary-Treasurer Mu Epsilon Kappa '25; Scissors Staff '25; President Senior Class '25; Hiking Team '25; Most Typical Senior '25.

"Be a live wire and you won't be stepped on."

Meet Miss Mary, president of the Senior Class, respectively. For one so small of stature she carries the dignity and responsibility remarkably well. Mary has endeared herself to every girl with her sweet disposition. Mary makes up her deficiency in size with efficiency in leadership. Mary's ability to put things over almost make her indispensable to the College and Class of '25. We are backing you up, Mary, no matter what your venture in the world may be—anyway we know you will be a true representative of Woman's College.

ARTHURINE BALL

B.A. English Major
COLUMBIA, MISS.

Philomathean; Swimming Team '22, '23, '24, W. M. '24; Alumnae Editor Scissors '25; Hiking Team '25; Hockey Team '24.

"Never grow old nor change,
Nor pass away,
Your gentle voice will flow
On forever."

Arthurine is a combination of rare and beautiful qualities. Attractive in appearance, lovable, frank, sincere, and with a voice that yells "Wait, Sonnet!" animatedly and sings softly "Song of Love" the next. Her popularity can be ascertained by calling around to see her most any time. There are two drawing cards—her personality and that big feather bed she brings to school each year. We expect great things of you, Arthurine. Class of '25 is proud to have you in its exclusive set.

MARY LOU BERRY

B.A., English Major
NEWIBERON, MISS.

Philomethen: Honor Roll, '22, '23; Vice-President Mu Epsilon Kappa '25; Inter-Club Council '25; Y. W. A. Cabinet '25.

"A true friend, a good student, and a loyal classmate."

Meet Mary Lou, who so well liked the looks of our Senior Class that she doubled her work in order to graduate with the Class of '25! That is what we call loyalty. And the Class of '25 would not be complete without her. Mary Lou has found her way into every heart and pulled in behind her smiles, tears, sympathy, joy, cheerfulness and love until there isn't way for her ever to get out again. Good luck, Mary Lou!

RUTH BRADLEY

B.A., English Major
INVERNESS, MISS.

Hermesian; Epsilon Omega Theta; Secretary Senior Class; President Epsilon Omega Theta '25; Secretary Hermesian '25; Y. W. A. Cabinet '25; Delta Club; Scissors Staff; Hiking Club.

"Not too serious, not too gay,
But a rare good fellow when it comes to play."

There are many, many Ruths in the world, but none can be sweeter, truer, or dearer to the Class of '25 than the Ruth just above. Ruth's school life has been a wonderful experience to her and to her associates, for she has indeed grasped every opportunity coming her way. Ruth hails from the "Land oh Cotton"—the Mississippi Delta—and if she be a true example of their products, it must be heaven there. Ruth, success awaits you.

JULIA MAE BRENT

Voice Diploma
PICAYUNE, MISS

"Nature made her what she is; we know not what will change her."

Judy rules quietly, and in a seemingly careless manner, the group that is so fortunate as to be intimately associated with her. Besides many other rare and indescribable qualities, Judy is the possessor of a lovely voice. Her talent, friendliness, and sweetness make a wonder girl of her. She will be a great success in the world and a great asset, just as she has been a great success here in college and an asset to the Class of '25.

MYRTLE BRENT

B.A. Science Major, Home Science Diploma
SUMMIT, MISS.

Hermenian; Honor Roll '21, '22; President Keithley
B. Y. T. U.; Treasurer Home Economics Club; Member Volunteer Band.

"There is nothing more queenly than kindness.
There is nothing more royal than truth."

Nat very often do we find the combination that Myrtle possesses—gentleness, refinement, the ability to be a good sport and an excellent student. With her quiet, unassuming manner she has found a niche in every heart that no one but Myrtle can fill. The world needs women like her, and we're not worried about the reflection she will send back to M. W. U. from her place in the world.

ALLIE BURCH

B.A. English Major
WARNERION, LA.

Hermesian; Honor Roll '21, '22, '25; Spanish Club '24, '25.

"A truer, nobler, trustier heart more loving or more loyal never beat within a human."

Allie came from Louisiana to join forces with the class of '25 as a freshman and has been very much present ever since. Her winning smile and brown eyes have won for her a place in the hearts of her classmates which none can usurp. She has proved that acts, not words, count most. She has that quiet way of making friends envied by so many and possessed by so few.

RUTH CHAPMAN

B.A. English Major
GEORGETOWN, MISS.

Philomathean; Epsilon Omega Theta; Scotch-Irish Club '23, '24; Le Cercle Français '24, '25; Secretary Circulo Espanol; Pine Burr Staff '25; Captain Military Company '25; House Chairman '25; Jones Club.

"They can because they think they can."

A welcome tide from Georgetown brought to us in our freshman year Ruth. Ruth is the kind of girl that you can depend on when it comes to some difficult work in class or society. One would hardly recognize the polished, charming Ruth of '25 as the same Ruth of '21. We know that she will use all of that special training gleaned from four years of applied study to build a throne in the midst of a home—or perhaps to teach others how to do the same thing.

ANNA VERA CAMERON

B.A. French Major
HATTIESBURG, MISS.

Philomathean; Hub City Club '22, '23, '24, '25; Class Poet, '24, '25; Le Cercle Français, '24, '25; Honor Roll '22, '23, '24, '25.

"That which makes me bend makes the King bow."

Meet the Webster, the Edison, the Macaulay of our campus! It is needless to try to tell you about the intellectual that Anna Vera really is; all you have to do is to look at her list of honors and see that she made honor roll every term of every year in her college career. Anna Vera is a town girl, but she is very well known and beloved by every girl on the Woman's College campus.

LA VERNE CAPERTON

B.A. Modern Languages
HATTIESBURG, MISS.

Philomathean; Honor Roll '22, '23, '24, '25; Y. W. A. Pianist '23, '24; Le Cercle Français '24, '25; Editor-in-Chief of Pine Burr, '24, '25.

"I slept and dreamed that life was beauty,
I awoke and found that life was duty."

La Verne has been very much awake and the success that crowns her performance of duty is indeed a masterpiece. When we knew that La Verne was to be editor-in-chief of the annual we rested easy. Although La Verne is a town girl, she quickly won recognition among the students because of her brilliancy of mind, friendliness, and that rare accomplishment of getting on the honor roll every term. Every girl loves La Verne, and even though her duties will not always be in the shape of Pine Burrs, she will perform them just as well.

ALMA CHANCELLOR

B.A. English Major
 NEWTON, MISS.

Hermesian; Captain Drill Company; Epsilon Lambda Sigma; Editor-in-Chief of Scissors, '25.

"Ambition is no cure for love."

Determination! Dependability! Ability! Just three of the driving forces that help to make her ambition more of a reality. A valuable asset to the Class of '25 is Alma. When the class needed help to put something over, Alma usually was called upon to render assistance. Alma has a great list of admirers—both sexes. Her ability has helped to make the "Scissors" one of the best college papers in the South. Some day we expect to hear of her as a noted critic on "How to Edit a Newspaper."

MINNA VERA CHAPMAN

P.A. Speech Arts
 WAYNESBORO, MISS.

Philomathean; Gamma Tau Kappa; Junior Ith Family, '23, '24; Senior Ith Family, '24, '25; Hiking Team; Most Earnest Sophomore, '23, '24.

"The heart will melt before her smile."

Indeed it will. Minna V. is one of the most vivid and striking girls of the Senior Class. A pleasing personality, a steady smile, and a cheery greeting always meet you when you meet Minna V. The place she fills in the world will be better off after she gets there. If success in college life is significant of success in the world, then our good wishes are not needed. Class of '25 just sends congratulations!

MELLGWIN COODY

B.A. Modern Languages
PHOENIX, MISS.

Hormonian; Honor Roll, '23, '24; Hockey Team, '24; Class Basketball, '25; Student Council; French Club.

"To love and be loved is the greatest happiness of existence."

Truly, Mellgwin loves and is loved by every girl at Woman's College. The reason is obvious. She is kind, true, interesting, cheerful, a good pal, and a fine student! Mellgwin excites the envy of her classmates many times, when without any effort whatsoever she speaks three or four languages and discusses Monroe's History of Education as a mere pastime! Mellgwin, the world needs you. The Class of '25 is proud to have you as one of them out there.

BERTIE DAVIS

B.A. English Major, Speech Arts Diploma
ESCATAWPA, MISS.

"None knew her but to love her,
Nor named her but to praise."

After spending her freshman year at Judson, Bertie came with all her resourcefulness, dependability, and courage to strengthen the Class of '25. Wielding the scepter of authority so well as president of the class in its junior year, the student body claimed her for President this year. In Bertie we find truly our Campus Queen, our ideal college girl, in fact, "a sport who excels in everything." This year Bertie takes also her diploma from the speech arts department. Of this we know she is worthy, for we are familiar with "Aunt Betsy." In the future years we shan't have to read Who's Who to know that Bertie is crowned with success.

"A woman mixed of such fine elements,
That were all virtue and religion dead,
She'd make them newly being what she is."

RUBY FRANCIS

B.A., English Major
TERRY, MISS.

Philomathean; Honor Roll, '21, '22; Swimming Team, '21, '22, '23; Beauty Section Annual, '22, '23, '24; Pi Delta Sigma; Secretary Pi Delta Sigma, '25; Y. W. A. Cabinet; Hiking Club, '25.

"Ve gods! End this college life and make two lovers happy."

Ruby is a girl that you go to when you want sympathy; when you want to drive away the blues; when you want to get the latest beauty hints; when you want to hear the latest scandal or when you want to hear the latest news from Jackson. How does she do it? She is a puzzle! One of her foremost attractions is a subtle, tilting personality that makes you agree with everything she says. Ruby will make a success, no matter what she takes up as her life work.

RUTH GANDY

F.A., Expression
SANTFORD, MISS.

"A smile when she wins, a smile when she loses."

A spark o' wit, a smile, a tear, a disinterested shrug, an aloof look, oh! just everything goes to make up the most striking personality, the most adorable friend, the most magnetic leader—Ruth! A grand athletic association president and an all round sport. Ruth's temperament and personality is of the elusive type. One cannot determine just the elements, but one realizes it is there drawing around her the whole student body—a mass of friends. Ruth, whether it's Red, Nick, Fish, Tom, Pick, or Harry, we know he's lucky. Ruth is a good sportswoman from every point of view, but excels in the art of "Fishing."

ELIZABETH GILCHRIST

Piano Diploma
MAGNOLIA, MISS.

Philomathean; Mu Epsilon Kappa; President M. E. K., '24; Inter-Club Council; Swimming Team, '22, '23, '24, '25; Tennis Team, '24, '25; Violin Choir Accompanist, '24; Y. W. A. Cabinet; Pine Burr Staff, '25; L'Alektro.

"Is there a heart that music cannot melt?"

One may gain the interest of Elizabeth in two ways—just say you want to play a game of tennis—she's ready! Or music—she's enthusiastic! If music has power, then Elizabeth will gain her utmost desire. We admire her because she has the determination to win. In after years when her life partner—of course she will have one—gets beyond rolling-pin control, Elizabeth will calm him by playing a few lines of Beethoven and then give vent to her own feelings—play Beethoven! Good luck, Elizabeth.

SUDIE HAMMACK

B.A.
HATTIESBURG, MISS.

Hermesian; H. Family; Personal Service Leader of Mission Class, '24; Librarian Keithley B. Y. P. U.; Tennis Club, '24; Y. W. A., '22, '23, '24; L. T. L. Club, '24; Hiking Club, '25; Secretary Student Government Association, '25.

"After all, it's the finish, not the start, that counts."

Sudie's work in college has been crowned with glorious success. She has won that which she tried to win, and that is much. Sudie is a little bundle of determination, cheerfulness, and talent. Last year she received her diploma in Speech Arts, an art in which she indeed excels. If the ability to speak, determination, optimism, and friendliness gets one anywhere in the world, Sudie will travel a long way. Your success is our joy, Sudie.

MARY LOUISE HAYS

R.A. English Major
HOLLANDALE, MISS.

Philomathean; Pi Delta Sigma; Delta Club; Swimming Team, '22; Inter-Club Council, '24, '25; Secretary Philos., '24; W. M.; President Pi Delta Sigma, '25; Advertising Manager Scissors, '25; Home Economics Club, '25; Hiking Team, '25; House Chairman, '25.

"Remember this, that there is a proper dignity and proportion to be observed in every act of life."

Mary Louise possesses just that bit of dignity that makes a charming, cultured personality. She has hosts of friends and is one of the most beloved girls in the class. She is one of the quiet kind "whose nature never varies." Mary Louise's ability, good record, and sweet disposition have made her an ideal senior. Her success at college is obvious from her long list of honors, but perhaps her greatest attributes are the ability to get ads for the Scissors and have dates every Friday night!

JESSE MAE HOBGOOD

R.A. English Major
FERNWOOD, MISS.

Hermesian; Le Cercle Francais, '23, '24; Honor Roll, '22, '23; House Chairman, '23, '24.

"Not too serious, not too gay.
But a rare good fellow when it comes to play."

The possessor of a splendid gift—a cheerful disposition. If she ever worries about anything she is kind enough to keep it to herself. Occasionally we meet people whom the longer we know the better we like. Such a person is Jessie Mae. The only time that she loses that quiet indifferent manner is twice each year, examination time—about January and May—but she has plenty of company then, too. The Class of '25 is fortunate in having her, and if her school life is significant of what her "worldly life will be—success will mark it.

WEBBIE JACKSON

F.A. Expression
PUCKETT, MISS.

Philomathean; Sigma Delta, '23, '24, '25; Ich Ga Bible Club, '23, '24; 1st Family, '23, '24, '25; Hockey Team; Hiking Team, '25; Student Volunteer; Orchestra.

"Give me the joy of flashing wit,
The companionship of men."

Here is Webbie, the fair-haired daughter of Venus, who has been a much admired and loved student during the last three years. She is possessed of traits which bring the honor and respect of her classmates and the love and admiration of the stronger sex. Webbie has the inherent good nature and general smile which make her welcome wherever she goes. Webbie has been a success at college and we feel sure that she will acquit herself in the same manner when she goes into the world.

LENA JAMES

B.A. English Major
MONTROSE, MISS.

Philomathean; Assistant College B. Y. P. T. Director; Campus Council; Chairman House of Representatives; Le Cercle Francais, '24; Business Manager of Field Co-operative Association; Y. W. A. Honor Roll, '22, '23; Scissors Staff, '25; Baseball Team, '25.

"Responsibilities gravitate to the person who can shoulder them and powers flow to the one who knows how."

If you wish something done well and quickly, ask Lena; if you want a friend, that's Lena, if you want sympathy, go to Lena! It is not often we see an attractive girl, who by virtue of her attractiveness can do everything without doing anything, willing to shoulder responsibility, but Lena shoulders it. She is one of the most loved girls on the campus.

GLADYSE JOHNSON

B.A. English Major

RICHTON, MISS.

Philomathean; Scissors Staff, '25; Le Cercle Français, '25, '24; Hiking Club, '24, '25; Swimming Team, '24, '25; Baseball, '24, '25.

"Intellect really exists in its products.
Its kingdom is here."

In the nature of Gladys we find again the proof of "still waters run deep," and really wonder how one small head can carry all it knew. But do not be mistaken and think that Gladys is all intellect, for along with the intellect she carries all those qualities of good nature, friendliness, and sincerity that make Gladys the Gladys we all love and respect. No task is too hard for her and success is always hers. So, now, foreseeing the future, we see only success and happiness awaiting you, Gladys.

WILMA JONES

F.A. B.A. English Major

HATTIESBURG, MISS.

Philomathean; Ht Family; Y. W. A.; Keithly B. Y. P. U.

"Such a one I remember
Whom to look at was to love."

Wilma entered the class in the sophomore year, and it is proud to claim her as one of its own. Having won her degree in three years, her real worth is realized. Although she gave up dormitory life for town life, she still takes an active part in all the campus activities. Her happy disposition and dependability make her a popular girl. Although she is studious, we will forgive her and stop with the expectation of hearing from her again in wider realms of learning. "A fine, likeable girl, that!" a rare combination of charm and impersonal good sense.

NETTIE LANGSTON

B.A. History Major
CLINTON, MISS.

Hermesian; Eastern Star; Baseball Team, '23; Varsity Basketball, '23-'24; M Club, '24; Most Athletic, '24; Class Basketball, '25; Hiking Club, '25.

"It is well to think well;
It is divine to act well."

Nettie tried her hand as a school marm for a year, then came back to join forces with the Class of '25. Nettie is also one of our basketball stars, and along with her success on the ball court goes success in the classroom, in the making of friends; in fact, in the making of a true college girl. She is quiet, generous, optimistic, and seems to get that joy from life that makes others' joy more complete. When in the future years the roll of the Class of '25 shall be called we feel sure that we shall see opposite your name, Nettie, success written in bold letters.

GLADYS LEWIS

B.A. Science Major, Home Science
LAUREL, MISS.

Hermesian; President Keithly B. Y. P. U., '24; Director B. Y. P. U., '25; Solomon Medal, '22; Le Cerele Francis, '23; Business Manager Athletic Association, '25; Most Intellectual, '25; House of Representatives, '24, '25; Epsilon Lambda Sigma; Inter-Club Council; Swimming Team; Baseball Team; Campus Council; Y. W. A.; Life Service Band.

"For nature made her what she is and never made another."

When Laurel sent us another favorite daughter in the person of Gladys, she did not know just how much joy she was going to drop into our midst. Gladys seems to take "Scatter Sunshine" as her motto. Whether it be in the classroom, on the campus, in the B. Y. P. U., or the volunteer band, she has the same cheery smile for all. She can analyze an unknown in chemistry, work a problem in trig, or make a dress in home science with the same ease. In fact, we have never found a task too hard for Gladys. Whether it be her lot to do personal service, be the school marm or make a home, we see success and happiness awaiting for her personal charm, sympathy, and unselfishness make it inevitable.

VERA LOTT

B.A. History Major
SEMINARY, MISS.

Philomathean.

"Wise to resolve and patient to perform."

Our feeling for Vera is eloquently expressed in these words, "Wise to resolve and patient to perform." With her wisdom and patience there go also those qualities of sincerity, attractiveness, and charm that make her one of the popular members of the Class of '25. She may be one of the listeners in a crowd, but wait until she is alone with her chosen few, and you will find the quiet Vera of the outside world the fun-loving, jolly pal. Vera, in having a nature that never varies, finds herself one of whom you are always sure—is one on whom you may depend for the success of any undertaking.

MARIE MAGEE

B.A. History Major
COLLISS, MISS.

Feature Section Annual, '23, '24; Secretary Sketch Club, '23, '24; President Sketch Club, '24, '25; Scissors Staff, '24, '25; Annual Staff, '24, '25; Eastern Star; House Chairman, '24; Hiking Club, '24, '25; Spanish Club, '24, '25.

"It's guild to be merrie and wise,
It's guild to be honest and true,"

Marie is a bundle of artistic temperament—not the selfish, pessimistic kind—but the true art. Just a touch here and there wielded gently with her brush, and the whole world is made brighter. A great lover of beauty that sees only the beautiful in everything. Always willing to help in every college activity and playing a part that only her cheerfulness and wit could make possible. Loved by all that know her—and who at M. W. C. doesn't know Marie?

CHRISTINE MARTIN

B.A., English Major
HAMBURG, MISS.

Philomathean; Hiking Club, '24, '25.

"A mixture of loveliness, all grace
Summed up and closed in little."

What Christine lacks in quantity she makes up in quality. She reminds us of the fact that often "the most precious jewels come in the smallest packages." She is the kind of a girl who seems to live the slogan, "To do the best for others is finally to do the best for ourselves." She is a friend who, by being a friend, has made friends in turn. Never a task is too hard for Christine to tackle with all the courage, energy and resourcefulness that make success assured. She is indeed a "Martin" who has winged her way into the heart of every classmate and left there an impression never to be erased.

SADIE MARTIN

B.A., English Major
HAMBURG, MISS.

Philomathean; Hiking, '25.

"Still water runs deep."

Modest, studious, industrious, quiet and loving—these are the adjectives that best describe Sadie. Her quiet but forceful personality has placed her as one of the popular girls in the Class of '25. Sadie is the kind of girl whose record stands out clearest among those who know her best. Her ready smile for both student and faculty has won for her the respect and admiration of all her classmates. She has proved that "a man's success in life depends more upon his character than upon his talents or genius." We believe a great future awaits Sadie, for she has talents with her character.

RUTH McCULLOUGH

B.A. English Major
TANGIPAHOA, LA.

Hellenian; Anite County Club, '26, '27; Scotch-Irish Club; Y. W. A.; Honor Roll, '22, '23; General Secretary B. Y. P. U., '21, '25; President Bennett B. Y. P. U.; House Chairman; Hiking Club; Scissors Staff, '24, '25.

"'Tis beauty that doth make women proud,
'Tis virtue that doth make them most admired,
'Tis modesty that doth make them seem divine."

Ruth will always tell you that she knows absolutely nothing about the lesson, but just wait until the opportunity comes for her to prove the contrary. Can you wonder when she can delve into the mysteries of Browning, Shakespeare and numerous other poets and bring out those secrets that seem so simple to others when once she has explained them? Not only is Ruth known in the classroom, but on the campus as well, for she has gone through five years of college life with that same determination and self-control that make for her many friends and success assured.

EDITH ODUM

B.A. English Major
STAR, MISS.

Philomathean; Gamma Tau Kappa; W. M.; Hiking Team; Beauty Section Annual, '24; Circulo Espanol, '25.

"Happy am I, from care I'm free,
Why ain't they all content like me?"

That's Edith. Happy and care-free, with a smile for everyone and a song to help out over the hard bumps. It seems rather hard (to Edith especially) to be shut up at M. W. C. So like a cage, she thinks. Although she has flapped around trying to escape, she remained long enough to gather a few crumbs, and all that the teachers insisted on giving her. Everyone loves Edith, and our best wishes go with her. We know that she will succeed in—getting what she wants. Ask her.

MITTIE WALNE PACK

B.A. Certificate in Voice
LAUREL, MISS.

Philomathean; President Philos. '25; Gamma Tau Kappa; President Gamma Tau Kappa, '25; Glee Club, '23, '24, '25; Concert Club, '23; Inter-Club Council, '25; W. M., '24, '25; Advertising Manager Pine Burr; Feature Section Pine Burr, '23; Most Optimistic Junior, '24.

"Where there's music there is harmony."

Mittie is one of those serious, optimistic girls, always smiling, yet, to hear her talk, always having more trouble than her share. But what does she do? Sings her troubles away. Mittie believes that music lames the brute, and you'd think so too if you would see them around her after one of her oratorios! Mittie has talent and we expect great things of her. The class of '25, settled in their respective places, farms, town houses, schoolrooms, etc., will some day smooth out their wrinkles while listening to Mittie sing through the telephone—or radio!

FANNIE MAE POLK

B.A. English Major
MOUNT OLIVE, MISS.

Hermesian; French Club, '25, '24; House Chairman, '24; Hiking Club, '25, '24.

"A woman nobly planned, to guide, to comfort, and command."

"One who never turned her back but marched breast forward," is the Fannie Mae of the Class of '25. She has marched breast forward not only in her studies, but by her happy, cheerful disposition has made many friends with both students and faculty. She is by nature a girl of high ideals and ambitions. Although she may not say much in the crowd, the few words that she says means worlds; and in the classroom she always has an answer for the questions asked. If you need some one on whom to rely for the success of an undertaking, that's Fannie Mae, too—so we have no fear that her name will not appear in the future as a success.

INEZ POLK

B.A. English Major

ITA BENA, MISS.

French Club, '23, '24; Philomathean; Delta Club, '24, '25; Hiking Club, '24, '25.

"I'm not denying that women are foolish:
They're made to match the men."

One of the good students of Woman's College. Studious, quiet, dependable, yet always ready for a hike or good time—except around exam. time. Inez, no doubt, has burned many gallons of midnight oil, not in vain, either, for her record speaks for a combination of ambition, tact, and a generous amount of common sense, which is enough for one girl, because they spell success in this world. The world needs more women like you, Inez, and we know that you will fill your niche in the world and make yourself worth while.

LUCILE RISHER

B.A. English Major

TAYLORSVILLE, MISS.

Philomathean; Scissors Staff, '25; Sketch Club; Hiking Club, '25; Pine Burr Staff, '25.

"Therefore Heaven Nature charged
That one body should be filled with all graces wide."

The most notorious girl at Woman's College—ugh! That sounds interesting. Well, she is interesting! Jolly, lovable, sincere, and pretty—that's Lucile. One of those girls that everyone loves and likes to call friend. Lucile somehow has managed to become well known without committing an unusual act. If you don't know her it's because you have never gotten a box from home! She has succeeded in making Johnson's Studio well known at a certain university in Mississippi. We shall miss you, Lucile, and we send best wishes along, no matter where you will be.

MARTHA ROSS

B.A. Postgraduate in Voice
HATTIESBURG, MISS.

Philomathean; Sigma Gamma Delta; Secretary Sigma Delta, '24; President, '25; Inter-Club Council, '24, '25; Glee Club, '23, '24, '25; Advertising Manager of Scissors, '24; Advertising Manager Pine Burr, '25; Voice Certificate, '24; Beauty Section Pine Burr, '23, '24; Secretary of Sophomore Class; Tennis Club; Concert Club.

"Loved and admired by all that know her and well known by all."

Martha's unusual personality, true womanly culture, talent, and loveliness, make her one of the most valuable assets of the Senior Class. Although Martha is a town girl, everyone at the college knows and admires her. Martha is possessor of a lovely voice, which is the reward of hard work combined with talent. Success awaits all who try, and we are perfectly confident that Martha will reach success in life, whether she chooses a career or not. Our best wishes await her always.

EMMA RYAN

B.A. Modern Languages
BAY SPRINGS, MISS.

Philomathean; Epsilon Lambda Sigma; Vice-President, Le Cercle Francais, '24; Secretary A. L. O'Brien B. Y. P. U., '24; Secretary-Treasurer Junior Class; Jolliest Junior; "Sweetest," '24; Vice-President Student Government Association, '25; Y. W. A.; Honor Roll, '24; '25; Treasurer Athletic Association; "Sweetest," '25; Pine Burr Staff.

"Earth seems more sweet to live upon
More full of love because of her."

"My friend when she must need me," seems to be the Class of '25, the slogan lived by Emma. In being herself a friend to all she has like-wise grappled friends to her soul with hoops of steel. There seems to be something unspokeable and sweet in her very presence. In fact, we know no quality lacking in our Emma. She is the combination of every good that goes into the making of an ideal college girl. We see written in the book of fate a successful future for Emma Louise. "There's in you all we believe of heaven-amazing brightness, purity of truth, eternal joy, and everlasting love."

LENA MYRTLE SELMAN

B.A. History Major
SONTAG, MISS.

Philomathean; Hiking Club, '24; Baseball, '21, '22.
"A kind of gentle heart she had to comfort friend or foe."

After finishing her high school course at Whitworth College, Lena Myrtle decided to give Woman's College and the Class of '25 the remainder of her college days. So here she is, and has been very much so ever since. Those who are fortunate enough to be classed in her list of friendships speak of her only fault, that is, her everlasting generosity. With those qualities of good nature, attractiveness and loyalty, we predict a happy future yonder.

BERNICE SIMMONS

B.A. Science, Home Science
KEWANEE, MISS.

Philomathean; Vice-President Epsilon Omega Theta, '24; Honor Roll, '23; Home Economics Club, '25; Student Council, '23, '24, '25.

"A true, honest student, a friend to everyone."

Bernice, it's a wonder to know how you know so much. We can well question how one small head can carry all she knows. She can analyze an unknown in chemistry or cut a dress in home science with as much ease as she can find the secrets of Browning. Not alone, however, is Bernice commendable for her studies: with those qualities of dependability, frankness, and sincerity, she surely deserves merit. She is a desirable friend and companion, although she says little in a crowd. Bernice is a proof of those that talk least and have most to say. We love you, Bernice, for your quiet way, and expect to hear from you in future years when you will have pushed your way unto higher halls of fame.

GERTRUDE SKELTON

F.A. Expression
GOODMAN, MISS.

Philomathean, Secretary Inter-Club Council, '23, '24; Senior III Family, '24, '25; Secretary Speech Arts Department; Hiking Team; Mu Epsilon Kappa.

"They build too low who build beneath the stars."

Meet Gertrude, one of the sweetest, truest, and best seniors! Who does not love Gertrude? Her high ideals make her a model from which we would do well to copy. Her record speaks for her. Gertrude has talent and we do not hesitate in saying that she will make something of it and use it out in the world just as she has here at college, to win friends, cheer the cheerless, and brighten the sad. Good luck to you, Gertrude.

BOB WILLIAMS

GEORGETOWN, MISS.

Philomathean; Pi Delta Sigma; Swimming, '23, '24; Tennis, '25; Most Popular Sophomore, '24; Vice-President Athletic Association; Most Popular Girl, '24, '25; Jones Club; Vice-President Philomatheans, '25; Major, '25; Senior Class Cheer Leader, '25.

"Heaven would that she many gifts would have,
And others to live and die her slave."

Youth, health, and good looks—these are the gifts that the gods have bestowed on Bob, and with no measuring, grudging hands. At the same time they have given her a disposition to match a nature as frank and fearless, as cheerful and careless. Bob has mixed frivolity with education, and the combination has been successful indeed. For seven years Bob has been the first known of the campus, both by her happy disposition and size to match. But do not think that Bob is all fun, and it took her seven years to win her diploma, for she took her high school course here. Bob, the Class of '25 considers itself indeed fortunate in having you for a member and cheer leader. "In the future as far as eye could see," we saw the vision of you crowned by years of success.

The History and Prophecy of the Class of 1925

(With Apologies)

To turn back thru numbered pages of four years
To that first leaf, bordered in deepest green,
And recount tales that must not be forgot—
Of all we've done as classmates until now,
Is set my task as keeper of the log.

THE LOG BOOK

The Sea of Knowledge lay as glass
Before the Port of Home. It was an autumn day
In the ninth month of nineteen twenty-one when
The call of that wide sea brought us together,
To venture out as pirates of the deep.

We commandeered a sloop, "The Freshman," and
We chose us one as captain, bold and daring,
To lead us in the quest of shining gold.
So Wessie Boyd captained our crew
Before a steady wind into adventure.

Day followed day, until late November
We met three ships and conquered in brave fight
Their treasure, an enchanted record, bequeathed
To prowess on the Sea of Basketball.
Our flag flew high and black upon the sky,
And with it rose our spirits victorious.

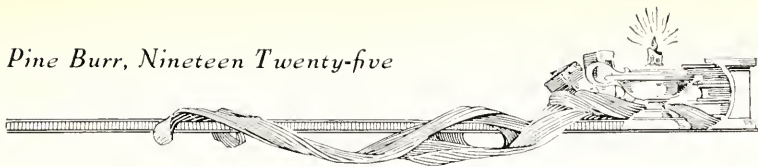

There came an angel, like the albatross,
To sponsor and befriend us through the storms,
And follow all our trials with her heart,
And watch on us as guardian of our sails,
Each day our hardy crew gave thanks to her
Who is our sponsor, Mrs. Wilkinson.

On days and nights when all the sea was wild
With winds of mathematics and history,
Our captain and her crew were heartened by
Friendly professor spirits hovering
To guide us through uncharted
Wastes of water.

We anchored. On the far horizon shaped
A ship, and came alongside, and hove to.
The captain and her crew were friendly salts
And bade us make good ship "Junior"
Our own in merriment. It pleased us much
And so we held reception and
Exchanged friendly hostilities long into night.

The summer came and we sailed sunny seas
Near to the Port of Home
For our heart's ease.

Another autumn came. In stern encounter
We captured us a larger, better bark,
Which was the "Sophomore," a sprightly craft
That cleaved the waves with a defiant air.

At annual balloting we chose the brave
Pauline Herrington to be our captain bold.

In nameless ports some of our crew were left,
While others were the toll paid to the sea,
Our treasure chest held more of air than gold,
And all the crew was desperate,
We met and conquered in this hour of bravest need
The rich ship "Public Fancy," with
A plan conceived and called by us "Stunt Night."
The crew rejoiced, for from the exchequer
Many silver pieces smiled and winked at us.

Another summer—
And we rode again
Into the happy port of old "Vacation."

We lost familiar faces but gained
Others who felt the lure of sailing seas,
Of boundless knowledge, seeking pirate gold.
There came a ship, "The Junior;" it we
In bloody battles of examinations seized.
So once again we put into the deep
With Bertie Davis to captain us.

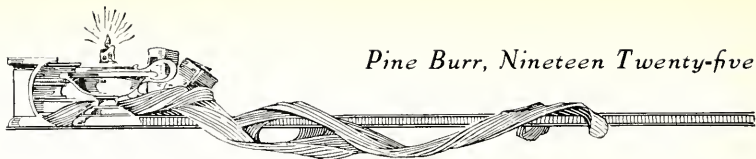

In numerous encounters did our crew
Learn of the great adventure, "College Life,"
The sea was new each day
And taught us more and more
Of how its treasures come to bravest souls
Traversing all its dangers, seeking goals.

In this, our third year of adventure,
We met our parent ship, "Parents' Day,"
Out upon the perilous waters,
The parent ship hove to and
Anchored with us for a day,
We explored new seas around
"State Fair" Island and resolved to sail them every year.

No water stops a rumor and
There seeped into our minds
A knowledge that somewhere the builders
Were preparing on the ways
A treasure craft "Diploma," having
In its hold many precious parchments,
Each member of our crew began designs
To sharp her sword for some eventful
Day when this great prize would float
Down on the breeze, an easy captive to our buccaneers.

Our summer haven was again that port
Whose friendly wharves
Are always cleared for us.

Once more with fall we set our sails
To catch a friendly breeze
And course the mighty main.
Fortune had smiled on us with a prize,
A vessel, strong and sturdy, dignified,
And most seaworthy, the craft "Senior."

Pine Burr, Nineteen Twenty-five

Mary Riley captained us,
A veteran crew; we kept each one her watch,
Shouldered responsibility that came
To us as sailors of the "Senior,"
With gladness in our hearts
Because we knew the touch
Of great traditions rising up to steer us on.

On one great mystic night
We sat ourselves like brave King Arthur's knights
About our chosen table. We ate, drank, and were merry,
And gave toasts that our great voyage into the Uncharted sea, "The World,"
Would be a discovery that would contribute
Joy, happiness and success to our well filled treasure chests.

The spring drifted toward summer.
With it we floated before the breeze
Until we came upon a ship.
We captured it and found
Most precious of all wealth—Diplomas—there;
Then to each member of the crew
Was given of precious parchment as she so deserved.

Into the heart of each tried buccaneer
There comes a joy and some of gladness, too,
A longing for to quit the Sea of Knowledge.
And yet a sadness that the end has come.
In commencement tears and smiles
We touch our souls once more together
Ere we close the log,
And see disbanded all our chosen crew,
Which is for aye the Class of '25.

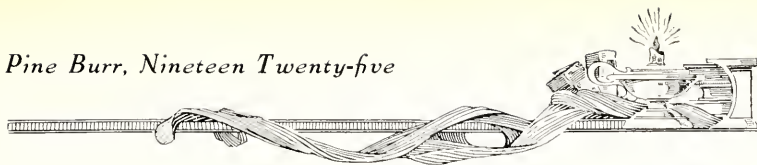

Now you've heard the tale
Of these gay buccaneers—
How they sailed the briny blue.
We'd never believe they'd settle down
But what I tell is true.
Rumors of peace soon reached their ears
In the year of twenty-five;
And they soon left their ship, the old W. C.,
And their treasure landward bore;
So each with the trophies she had won
Departed from her mates—
And now I am going to tell you
Something about their fates.

Listen to the startling news,
Get in the proper mood,
She's in the race for governor.
Who? Our dignified Gertrude.

Ruth Chapman is efficient
In the role of—cop;
Tells him exactly when to go,
And exactly when to stop.

Emma Ryan owns a farm—
She's sad and quite forlorn,
Her life is just an endless round
Of hoeing beans and corn.

Tell you 'bout our Lena James,
She is mighty smart.
Yes, she married long ago,
And like her, he's "Sharp."

And where is Gladys Johnson?

You'd be surprised to know,
She's starring in the movies
Playing opposite Valentino.

Gladys Lewis' purpose

Was to launch a noble work,
She's working with the orphans,
And her duty never shirks.

We're very glad to tell you

All about our Vera Lott,
She's won much fame at teaching,
And says she'll never stop.

Just take a glance at Broadway—

Edith is there, 'tis true,
Ziegfeld now presents her
In the Midnight Dance Revue.

Mary Lou is quite a surprise,

She doesn't know it, either,
She's selling patent medicine
That cures all kinds of fever.

Julia Mae has won much fame

In all kinds and sorts of places;
She sings, and everyone that hears
Can't keep their hearts from racing.

In an office building 'way up high,

We find our Wilma Jones.
She's kept busy running to and fro
And answering telephones.

And what of our dear Ruby?

Listen to what I say:
To please a certain gentleman,
She cooks and mends each day.

In a far and distant country—

To the city of Paree—
La Verne teaches French girls
How to say I am, je suis.

Come closer and I'll whisper it,

Yes, her first name's Mellgwin,
She's cleared a million dollars
Fixing styles for men.

As for Anna Vera,

With her ever ready smile,
She now devotes her life
To a study of Carlyle.

And what of Sudie Hammack

And her oratory rare?
She has entered politics,
And in Congress has a chair.

Our fascinating Ruth Bradley,

Tired of this gay life,
Has cast aside her flippancy,
And become a preacher's wife.

Many prosperous days

Has Allie Burch already seen;
She makes enormous profits,
By selling gasoline.

Our dear Myrtle Brent

Has fulfilled our expectation;
She is teaching little heathen
Far away from civilization.

Glance into the future,

And Inez you'll see,
With a tiny, wee, small husband,
Reaching barely to her knee.

Also for Arthurine

Her life's a tale of woe;
She seeks her fifth divorce
In the city of Reno.

Listen now, take notice!

Hear about our own Sadie—
She traveled o'er to England,
Where she was made a Lady.

Lena Myrtle Selman lives

In a little country town;
Married a prosperous farmer,
And now has settled down.

Bernice is a credit to her class—

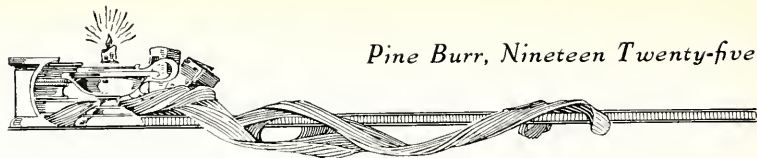

She jilted her affianced—
And now devotes all of her time
Doing research work in science.

The praises of Martha Ross

We heartily proclaim,
She's entered the Chataqua now,
And as a singer won much fame.

Jessie Mae intended

To teach the heathen to do right,
But now she's in the Baptist church
Assisting Dr. (?).

Pine Burr, Nineteen Twenty-five

Fannie Mae, when in the west,
Fell in love, I'm told,
And has settled down for life
With a cowboy brave and bold.

Alma has seen much of life,
She looks at it very well;
For years and years her job has been
Goods from a pack to sell.

Webbie has made a great success—
Dramatics is her career—
With her winning smile and charm,
Won much fame far and near.

Tell you 'bout Miss Nettie Langston,
She's such a great athlete—
She always supervises
Every international meet.

Ruth McCullough devotes her life
In a most useful way,
To the study of the little birds,
The mocking bird and jay.

A very efficient demonstrator
Has made our own Christine—
She's much interested at present
In canning peas and beans.

The fame of Bertie Davis
Almost reaches to the skies;
Would you believe it when I say
She's singing lullabies?

Mary Riley's high ambition
Has vanished in mid-air.
She now supports her family
By cutting flappers' hair.

Ruth Gandy was voted
By all our best athlete.
Today she's taking honors
In the international meet.

Lucile studied Bible
In Wilkinson's class with us;
She is now an acrobat
In Barnum and Bailey's circus.

Atlas for Bob Williams,
How disappointing she has been;
She was recently discovered
In the cellar brewing gin.

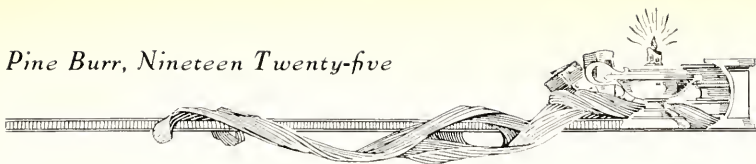

Mary Louise Hayes
Lives a most exciting life;
On a visit to the capitol
Became the President's wife.

A great career has Elizabeth Gilchrist,
For music she was made;
She's quite a brilliant artist,
And lays Hoffman in the shade.

The name Magee is heard
On land and sea as well,
Her paintings now are equal
To those of Raphael.

Minna is an actress,
And she's a hit, you bet,
You ought to see her playing
In the role of Juliet.

Our brave and bold Mittie Walne,
So bright and full of fun,
To the great surprise of all
Has now become a nun.

Memories

By ANNA VERA CAMERON, '25, Class Poet.

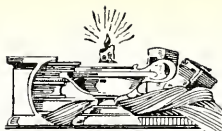

When our college years are over,
And the voice of Duty calls
To new paths which stretch before us,
Strewn with rises and with falls,
We shall have a light to guide us
Safely o'er the rocky way,
Hearts packed full of glowing memories
Of our joyous college days.

Oh, our feet will often stumble
O'er the pitfalls in the way,
And we'll sometimes seem to grumble
At the hardships of the day;
But if we will keep before us
Memories of our school days still,
We shall find them present helpers,
And a cure for every ill.

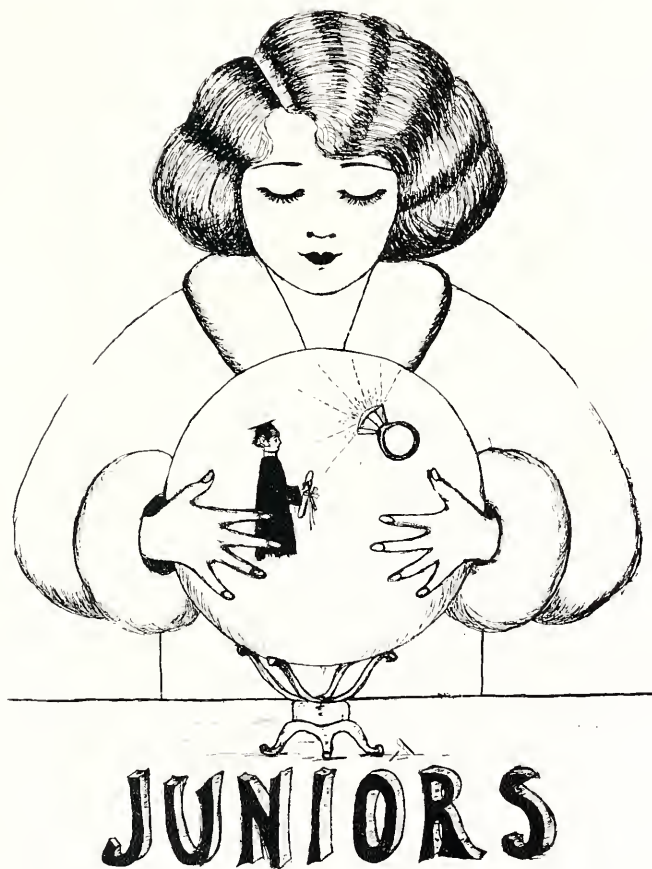

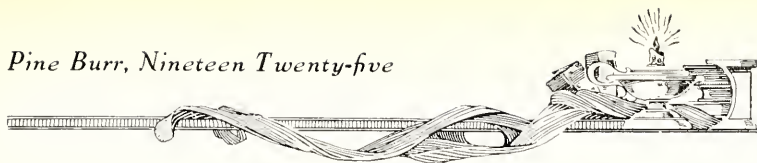

When at evening time we gather
'Round the fireside of our home,
And the little ones all clamor
For a tale e'er bedtime comes,
There are stories always ready,
Singed out from all the rest—
They are tales of Woman's College,
Finest! Greatest! Noblest! Best!

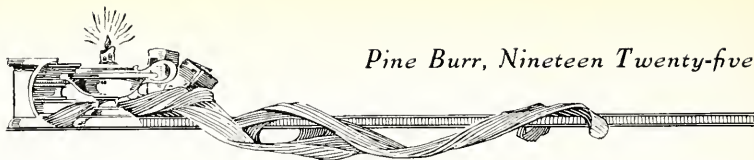

Every time they like them better,
Scarcely is the last word told
Than with pleading voice they clamor
For the stories never old.
And each time our hearts beat quicker,
With a love more pure than gold,
As we paint in glowing pictures,
Those sweet college days of old.

And the years to come shall find us
Ever holding to the task,
Ever having to remind us,
Those sweet memories of the past.
And those memories shall inspire us
Nobler women far to be;
Love and honor, praise and blessing,
Woman's College, all for thee!

MRS. S. A. WILKINSON, Religious Leader

Religious Activities

"The School with a Mission" strives in every way to give her girls every religious advantage. Mrs. S. A. Wilkinson, the "Religious Mother," has the religious activities so arranged that each girl in school may have part in one of the thirteen Y. W. A. circles, and in one of the seven B. Y. P. U.'s.

The Campus Council, with Mrs. Wilkinson as director, is composed of the heads of each organization in school. Its purpose has been to correlate all the religious activities. When the State Student Conference met here in November, Mississippi Woman's College was the only school in the state which had a campus council working.

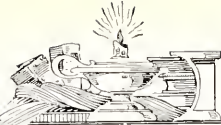

The Life Service Band is composed of sixty-four girls who have given their lives to the Master's service. Of this number sixteen are foreign volunteers. This group of girls does as much practical religious work as it can, for Jesus said, "Inasmuch as ye did it unto the least of one of these, ye did it unto me." With the love of Christ in their hearts these girls work for Him by holding services in two jails, doing personal work in two hospitals, giving programs, and holding story hour in the negro church, enlisting the community in behalf of the college church and, the newest of the activities, holding two street meetings every Saturday night.

May "the School with a Mission" continue to grow in its services that "in all things He may have the pre-eminence."

THE DARK SIDE OF CAMPUS LIFE

Fresh: "I'm trying to get ahead."
Soph: "You need one."

M. C. boy (to M. W. C. girl): "Dear, you are the only girl in the world. I love you better than life itself. I can't live without you."

Chum (behind him): "That's four girls you've told that to. You're running a big risk, if one of 'em was to die!"

* * *

Mary Louise: "Did you see that movie called 'Oliver Twist?'"

Arthurine: "Yes, and say, wouldn't that make a peach of a book?"

* * *

A freshman stood on the burning deck,
So far as we are able to learn,
He's standing there in safety yet,
For he's far too green to burn.

Sayings of the Sages

"There will be a short but a very important meeting of the student body immediately after little prayer meeting."

"Young ladies, will you please give us your hearty co-operation in this very vital matter?"

"Look this way please. Just a little more pleasant."

"Young ladies, we will have mission study tomorrow."

"Girls, if you're not here when the hell taps, the doors will be locked."

"There will be a very important meeting of the Field Co-operative Club in Mr. Wilkinson's class room immediately after dinner. Don't wait for the fifteen minute bell."

"The Blue Moon tea room will be open this afternoon. Girls, come out and get delicious chocolate and sandwiches."

"I hate to pin down on you girls, but I'll just have it to do. No more of this foolishness—that's all right, we mean business in here."

"Girls, this is a very important announcement. If any of you have anything you want to go to the laundry before the Christmas holidays, bring it down right away."

"I want every senior to hand in her schedule to me sometime today."

THE ETERNAL THREE

Scene—A cozy parlor, with dim burning lamp. Two persons sitting very close on couch—a man and a maid, of course.

The youth:

"You are gladness, you are sunshine,
You are happiness, I trow;
You are all to me, my darling,
That is lovely here below."

The damsel:

"You are splendor, you are glory,
You are handsome, you are true;
All there is this side of heaven,
I behold, my love, in you."

The pater (voice off stage):

"I am lightning, I am thunder,
I'm a roaring cataract;
I am earthquake and volcano,
And I'll demonstrate the fact."

OLD MAID'S SOLILOQUY

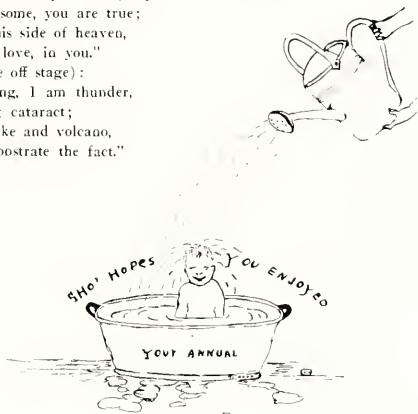

To wed or not to wed—that's the question,
Whether 'tis better to remain single
And disappoint a few men for a time,
Or marry, and disappoint one man for life.

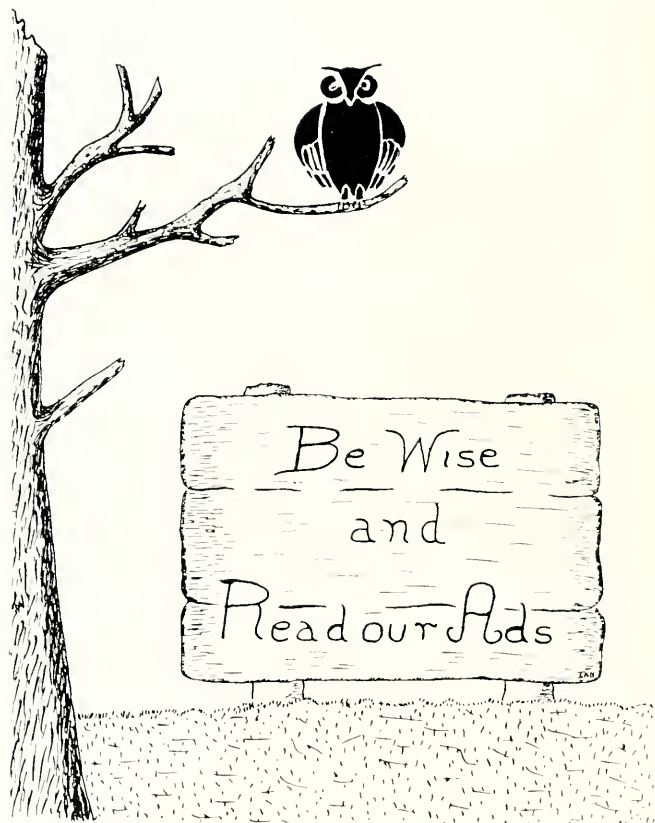

—Exchange.

* * *

Mittie Walne: "I'm jealous; I heard that Martha won a prize for singing."

Ruby: "Yes, a whole building—brick at a time."
